POTENTIALLY INELIGIBLE REGISTERED VOTER'S NOTICE

The below voters are potentially ineligible to be registered to vote pursuant to Florida Statute 98.075 or Florida Statute 98-045.

The Holmes County Supervisor of Elections, H. Russell "Rusty" Williams, has received information that the persons listed below are potentially ineligible to be registered to vote. Failure to contact this office within 30 days after this notice is published may result in a determination of ineligibility by the Supervisor of Elections and removal of the registered voter's name from the statewide voter registration system. You should contact this office by calling 850-547-1107 to receive information regarding the basis for the potential ineligibility and instructions on how to resolve the matter or request additional assistance if needed.

If you attempt to vote at an early voting site or your normal election day polling place, you will be required to vote a provisional ballot. If you vote by mail, your ballot will be treated as a provisional ballot. In either case, your ballot may not be counted until a final determination of eligibility is made. If you wish for your ballot to be counted, you must contact the supervisor of elections office within 2 days after the election and present evidence that you are eligible to vote.

The Supervisor of Elections will make a determination no less than 30 days after this published notice and if removed will notify the voter of the determination and action taken.

If further assistance is needed, the voter should contact the Holmes County Supervisor of Elections office at:
